The manager of laboratory,

Sri Lanka Institute of Bio-Technology PVT Ltd,
Homagama.

Dear Sir/Madam,

This letter is with a view to indicating my interest in the above advertised "Laboratory Assistant" position within Sri Lanka Institute of Bio-Technology PVT Ltd. After the four years of practical bench experience in the Biotechnology Lab and the proper Academic preparation, I would appreciate the opportunity to contribute to the success of your esteemed organization.

While working as a Laboratory Assistant in Balasooriya Private Hospital I worked with different lab samples and equipment, learn to set up samples and operate equipment safely. That is why being an organized, detail-oriented and remarkably accurate professional, I have always delivered accurate test results as well as maintained excellent lab performance. Furthermore, the job of an Assistant Pharmacist developed me in problem-solving skills as well as communication, which can improve my work with different branches of healthcare.

Presently, studying BSc (Hons) Biotechnology at Sri Lanka Institute of Information Technology, this first-class honors indicates my commitment in studies and a zeal of lifelong learning. Combined with technical skills, my diploma in English Language and Literature obtained while at Aquinas College has more enhanced communication and writing skills especially in communicating science. Being a native speaker of English and having a good knowledge of Sinhala and Tamil languages, I would be effective in various organizations and I engage with various stakeholders. As person who has grounding in technical aptitudes and a desire to make a positive impact on development of heightened laboratory science, I am quite sure that I will be useful to Sri Lanka Institute of Bio-Technology PVT Ltd.

Hi there, I am happy to contribute to your team and would love to talk to you about how I think I might fit in. Best regards for entirely considering my candidature to this position. I much like the opportunity to be a part of your successful organization. Time laid down sincerely for its successful progression of the organization.

Yours sincerely,

Dilsha Achini
